NACDD and ITACC – what is the difference?

NACDD is a non-profit, non-partisan membership based organization

The role of NACDD is to --

To advocate for the national public policy agenda

To advocate for DD Councils' appropriations in Congress

To convene DD Councils for leadership and development training

NACDD was awarded a 5-year contract for TA services by AIDD.

NACDD services are provided through membership dues and other funds.

TA services are provided to all DD Councils regardless of membership in NACDD

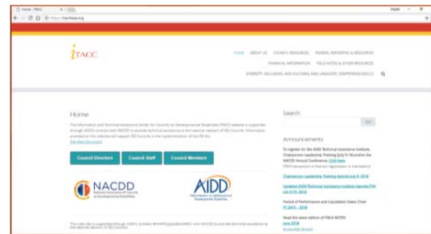

TA services provided through the TA contract are free of charge to all DD Councils.

We will now talk more about the services provided by NACDD and ITACC.
