

OIDD Training and Technical Assistance Institute 2023

Pathways to Inclusion: Engaging People and Expanding Access Across the Lifespan

Agenda

REGISTER

Note: There is NO charge to attend the online Institute

Wednesday, May 10, 2023

1:00 – 2:30 p.m. ET - ACL Updates

Session description: Leadership and staff from the Administration for Community Living, Administration on Disabilities, Office of Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities will share information about federal agency initiatives and updates.

3:00 – 4:30 p.m. ET – HCBS: Exploring Engagement Strategies

Session description: Attendees will hear about the work and findings to date on home and community-based settings final rule. Council engagement strategies will be explored and highlighted.

Thursday, May 11, 2023

1:00 – 3:00 p.m. ET – Board Inclusion through Meaningful Engagement: Beyond Tokenism, Effective Methods, and Practices

Session description: This session features large group presentations and small group discussions. Attendees will hear about five best practices to enhance the capacity of organizations to have self-advocates as effective members of their Councils, boards, a policy-making bodies. Small group discussions will be led by people with developmental disabilities.

3:30 – 4:45 p.m. ET – Recruiting, Preparing, and Engaging Council Members

Session description: Attendees will explore inclusive outreach and recruitment strategies, ways to prepare people to effectively serve on the Council, and strategies to engage members in Council work.

Tuesday, May 16, 2023

1:00 – 2:30 p.m. ET Leadership for Every Generation: Understanding Generational Preferences on Leading and Being Led

Session description: Attendees will hear from Kristin Scroggin, a nationally known researcher and speaker on generational differences. This session will focus on generational preferences on how different generations like to lead and be led. Generational preferences on training, feedback, communication mediums, and communication styles will be shared.

3:00 – 4:30 p.m. ET – Let’s Talk About It! Breakouts to explore how generational information influences Council projects and efforts on self-advocacy requirements.

Session description: This session provides attendees an opportunity to discuss how Councils can use the information on generational preferences to influence Council projects, self-advocacy efforts, and Council member engagement. Breakout rooms will be facilitated by the Institute Planning Committee members.

Wednesday, May 17, 2023

1:00 – 2:30 p.m. ET – Including People and Expanding Access through Accessible Language Strategies

Session description: Attendees will explore strategies and learn about resources to inform language access efforts.

3:00 – 4:30 p.m. ET - Multi-Partner Evaluation Engagement: BUDDIES Project - Building Evaluation Capacity

Session description: Do you want to know more about how to engage multiple partners in your Council evaluation process? If so, this session is for you!

